He Says He Shot Without Aim or Inten tion to Kill-Grand-Master Stansbury Visits Petersburg Odd Fellows.

PETERSBURG, VA., March 24.-Spe-Interest in the McClanahan murder es not wane, as is evidenced by or that, although this was the day in which the hustings court een engaged with the case, the a after the doors were opened. rowd was about equally divided cen whites and blacks. The first s introduced by the defense this that on the night of the shootthe coroner's jury that she was street at the time of the shootand gave such damaging testimony the accused) on Bollingbrook While witness and the woman had shot a white man on Old street; Susie Walker then said: "I am y sorry that they are cutting and ing on Oid street, as I have got up there." In answer to a ques-by Juror J. H. Balley, witness said he did not know whether or not Walker had been up on Old street

t jut on the stand. He testified that was from Abingdon, Va., and was nuty three years old. He had been ng in Abingdon all his life, with the ion of the time he had spent walt-a hotel in Philadelphia. In ref-to the shooting on the night of the of September, the prisoner stated and Robert Matthews were passstapped him in the face and knocked off his hat. He stooped to pick up his hat and got it. As he stooped to get his hat the man advanced upon him. Witness waved his cane in front of him and told the man to keep off. The cane struck against a fence and fell from witness hand. The man then advanced on witness and said, with an oath, I will kill you." Witness took a pistof from his overcoat pecket and waved it in front of him so that the man could see it. Witness subsequently fired the Witness subsequently fired the in the air, thinking it would not the man. As the man continued ance upon the witness the latter and started to run, and fired beand did not know that he had she one, and did not know that he had shot inly one until he was arrested on the sight of the shooting by a police officer of this city, at the Virginia Normal and Collegiate Institute, when he was informed by the officer that he had shot Lucius Inge. In answer to a question by one of the counsel, McClanahan stated the beginning of the counsel of the counsel of the counse of the counsel of the counse of the counsel of the counse of the hat he weighed 130 pounds and was feet 5 inches in height. In reply to a question by Mr. McIll-vaine, of counsel for the defense, the risoner stated that Robert Matthews, de Clanahan is being tried.

The examination of witnesses for the effense was concluded about 12:30 o'clock his afternoon, when several witnesses or the Commonwealth were examined. At 1 o'clock the court ad-4 o'clock this afternoon to counsel an opportunity to prepare instructions. After the adjourneir instructions. day to pay an official visit to Appointatox Lodge, No. 16, and Monroe Lodge, No. 8. Mr. Stansbury told me that he had had successful visitation to nearly all the lodges throughout Virginia. He reports the order in first-class condition. About eight lodges have been instituted during eight lodges have been his term, and there has been a gain of about six hundred members. There has been a gain in the whole order, according to the latest reports for the past year of 48,000. This is the largest gain made in any one year of the order's history. The present membership of the independent order to day is more than 890,090, which is much larger than any other fraternal ormuch larger than any other fraternal or-ganization. The grand master will make his annual report to the grand 'odge, which will meet in Norfolk on April 11th, Many important measures will be acted upon at this meeting, and strong effort will be made to form a plan for the build-ing of an Odd Fellows' temple in Rich-mond.

There was a complete change in the omplexion of affairs on the Stock Exchange to day. The bears were inclined to be aggressive early in the day, when the day when the d a sharp raid was made on Sugar, New England, Chicago Gas and a few other specialties. The shares named yielded 1 to 2% per cent., the latter in Sugar, which fell off from 10214 to 99%. It was in this stock that the bears met their first defeat first defeat. Around par heavy buying orders were placed, and the result was a sharp rally. In the meantime the street became imbued with the fact that money was working toward greater ease and that gold exports were likely to be much less than anticipated. It was announced that the half million which had been engaged for shipment by to-morrow's steamer by Heidelbach, Ickelheimer & Co. had been withdrawn, and that instead of the $2,500,000 expect-ed to go forward by next Tuesday's steamers probably less than half that amount will go. These and other built points started an active buying move-ment, in which the commission houses were conspicuous. The purchase covered an unusually wide range, and the demand finally became so pronounced that the shorts took alarm and rushed into cover. shorts took alarm and rushed into cover, with the result of making a strong to buoyant speculation. The advance was equal to 105 per cent., the latter in Pittsburg and Western preferred, which on small offerings rose to 39. Lackawanna rose 2½ to 145½, and the shorts are being badly punished. Jersey Central sold up 2 per cent. There was a lively inquiry for other high priced stocks like Lakeshore, Delaware and Hudson, and an urgent demand for the Grangers, Western Union, Manhattan, New England and Missouri Facific. Among the Industrials, United States Rubber led with a rise of 5½ per cent. to 5½ per cent. General Electric, Edison Illuminating, Whisky and Lead were 1 to 2½ per cent, higher, and all were on Huminating, Whisey and all were to 2½ per cent. higher, and all were prominent in the dealing. Sugar also developed buoyancy near the close and developed buoyancy near the lowest. The

CHICAGO, ILL., March 24.-After an CHICAGO, ILL. March 24.—After an all-day bold front, wheat and corn, within fifteen minutes of the close, weakened most ingloriously. Corn, which had only been egged on by the example set to it by the wheat market, was the weaker of the two when its supporters began to show the white feather. Wheat had gained about \(\frac{1}{2}\cdot\), for July, but dropped it all at the close. Corn lost \(\frac{3}{2}\cdot\), of the highest price it brought early in the session. There was a fair trade in oats, prices covering a range of \(\frac{3}{2}\cdot\), and closprices covering a range of %c., and clos-ing weak at inside prices, with a net loss of %a%c. The feature was the advance of 1/21-3c. The feature was the advance in June, that has been selling the same as May, to 1/3c. premium. The most striking feature in the provision trade was a drop of 25c. in May lard, while July and September closed with a net
